We have attached a phonics sound sheet to help to you to remember to use your phonics in your writing.

Week 1

Monday - Brainstorming

After watching the story 'Rumble in the Jungle', choose your favourite animal in the story to write about.

Before we can start writing about our animal, we need to think of some amazing words to describe your chosen animal. Then, tomorrow we are ready and prepared to write about it.

So, we are going to do a brainstorm to help us to think of words. You may want to use the layout I have attached below, or you may want to do your own. Make sure you write your chosen animal in the middle and your amazing words to describe around it in the bubbles. Remember when we are brainstorming, we don't need to write in full sentences, single words will do.

When thinking of words to describe your animal you may want to use your five senses to help you:

TASTE

HEARING

SIGHT

SMELL
