

Newspaper Article

Part	Tip	Notes
Headline	Short, snappy, Alliteration Pun/Rhyme e.g. Big burger eater munches mountains of meat.
Strapline	Main point not more than 5-7 words Local man breaks world record
Byline	Who, job title, where Sam Jones, International Correspondent, Yeovil
Lead Para 	3 sentences max! A local man is celebrating tonight having beaten the world record for eating the most burgers in an hour. Mr Fremlin, mountaineer and burger enthusiast, managed to devour a whopping 20 kilos of various burgers in just 60 minutes in his local butcher's shop in Sherborne last Saturday. This is incredible as it beat the last World Record by an amazing 12 kilos (held by Han Gree since 2002).	Who? What? How/Why? Where? When?
Body and Sources	Provide more detail of 5 W's. Written in short paragraphs - each no more than 3 sentences. Information presented in a balanced, factual way. Keep in mind who will be reading your article - audience. Names and titles of people who provide information Use of direct and indirect speech when quoting what was said.	Details! Para 1 Para 2 Para 3 Para 4
Illustration/Caption		Description of illustration: Caption:

Must include: direct and indirect speech, varied sentence starters, a relative clause and formal language