

- 1 Read the notice below:

Vote for your favourite TV programme

We are conducting a survey to see which TV programmes are preferred by pupils in our school.

Following the survey ¹ we will be writing to the BBC to share our findings with them ² so please let us know your opinion.

To participate ³ please use the voting forms in the school hall.

Make your opinion count ⁴ participate in the survey.

- (a) Write the punctuation needed at each number in the text:

1. 2. 3. 4.

1(a) P
2 marks

- (b) Write two pieces of evidence that show that the above text is formal:

1. _____
2. _____

1(b) G
2 marks

- (c) Which word in the text above means the same as poll, study and investigation?

1(c) V
1 mark

- 2 Tick the sentence that shows the possibility of something happening:

- ☐ My dad says I'm being good.
☐ My dad might say I'm being good.
☐ If my dad says I'm being good.
☐ My dad says I'm always good.

2 G
1 mark

- 3 Rewrite the sentence below as a question:

The wind blew the candle out.

3 G
1 mark

- 4 Edit this text to make it into Standard English:

Callum: What are you doing tomorrow?

Kyle: Jaz and me was going to the cinema. Do you want to come?

Callum: No thanks. I haven't got no money.

4 G
2 marks

- 5 Circle the word that is an antonym (word with the opposite meaning) of the adjective expert:

capable

inept

practised

proficient

5 V
1 mark

/10

Total for this test