

- 1 Draw lines to match each sentence to the appropriate punctuation mark(s):

He lacked confidence in himself he thought he was no good at anything.

1 mark 1 P

He likes fishing particularly with his new fishing rod so he's going on a fishing holiday.

She stalked out of the room and slammed the door BANG!

- 2 Rewrite the following as direct speech to show how Sue would have spoken to Anjit:

Anjit reported to Tina that Sue had told him that she didn't care whether he told everyone.

2 marks 2 P
2 G

- 3 Complete the following sentences using connectives. Do not use and, but, so or because:

(a) I ran as fast as I could _____ I still missed the bus.

(b) _____ when I get into trouble there, I usually like school.

(c) _____ doing my homework, I'm watching TV.

2 marks 3 G

- 4 Complete this sentence:

Joshua ran from his mark and carefully kicked _____

1 mark 4 G

- 5 Turn the statements in this text into two questions:

Robert Scott was an officer in the Royal Navy who led two expeditions into the Antarctic regions.

1. _____

2. _____

2 marks 5 G

- 6 Write a word to complete the sentence below. Choose from:

disaffected

disconcerted

discordant

distraught

He sobbed and sobbed when his mother left: he was _____.

1 mark 6 V

- 7 Suggest a word with three or more syllables to take the place of angry in the sentence below:

I feel angry when I can't do something.

1 mark 7 V

/10

Total for this test