

- 1 Add a colon and three apostrophes to punctuate this sentence:

The classroom was a mess the childrens tables were still covered in pencils, the boys trays were spilling over and the girls hadnt put their painting aprons away.

1 P
2 marks

- 2 Underline the subordinate clause in this sentence:

Although I can enjoy listening to music, I cannot sing in tune.

2 G
1 mark

- 3 Use a verb to complete this sentence:

We _____ our homework when the alien landed.

3 G
1 mark

- 4 Rewrite this sentence with the clause and phrase in a different order:

Some Japanese fisheries are still killing whales in spite of international pressure.

4 G
1 mark

- 5 (a) Correct three errors in the text below.

It was cold as a dog's nose in the alley, but Mitch and Harry are standing there, collars up and sunglasses on. They was investigating a crime – the crime of the disappearing sandwich. Mitch was reading a magazine, but Harry wasn't doing nothing but watching the door.

5(a) G
1 mark

- (b) Give two reasons why the text is informal, based on the language of the text:

1. _____
2. _____

5(b) G
2 marks

- 6 Look at these words:

credit

incredible

credulous

credential

What does the prefix cred- mean? Circle the best option:

life

believe time

money

6 V
1 mark

- 7 Suggest a synonym for the word vibrant in the following sentence:

The picture was painted in vibrant colours.

7 V
1 mark

/10

Total for this test