

- 1 Write the correct punctuation in the gaps below:

Three things happened before school this morning _____

- my trousers split _____
- I spilt milk on my jumper _____
- the cat walked over my coat with its muddy paws.

1 mark 1 P

- 2 Write a short question beginning with the words below:

How many _____

1 mark 2 P

- 3 Rewrite this passive sentence as an active one:

The children were being taught by an excellent supply teacher.

1 mark 3 G

- 4 Write the expanded form for each of these contractions:

couldn't _____ won't _____ would've _____ shouldn't have _____

1 mark 4 G

- 5 Combine all the information in these sentences into one complex sentence without using 'and' or 'but':

After drama club the children tidy away. Drama club is on Thursdays. Matt leaves immediately after the club.

2 marks 5 G

- 6 Draw a line to match an intensifying adverb with each sentence:

That PC is _____ cheap.

I was _____ disappointed by her reaction.

The headteacher was _____ opposed to that course of action.

Base jumping is _____ dangerous.

bitterly

ridiculously highly strongly

2 marks 6 G

- 7 Circle the word that is the best synonym for the underlined word:

She felt very apprehensive before the exam.

confident

nervous

knowledgeable tired

1 mark 7 V

- 8 Look at these pairs of words:

music – musician

politics – politician

electric – electrician

1 mark 8 V

What do you think the suffix -ian indicates? _____

/10

Total for this test