

I Was Just Thinking...

Does a frog go for a jog?
Does a lion have to iron?

Does a cat eat a mat?
Is a pot a bit hot?

Does a crow know how to mow?
Does a gorilla eat the ice-cream vanilla?

Does an alligator use a translator?
Does a horse take a driving course?

Does a shark play in the park?
Does a hawk live in New York?

Does a fox carry a box?
Is a spider a fighter?

Who knows?

I Was Thinking...

Do flies have wrinkly eyes?

Do koalas eat bananas?

Do bear like pears?

Do cranes have brown veins?

Do alligators use calculators?

Do giraffes wear scarves?

Can dogs see through fog?

Does a horse have a driving course?

Does a buffalo know the Gruffalo?

Do lambs drive vans?

Do fleas have car keys?

Does a badger have a bladder?

Do porcupines have a spine?

Do mice like rice?

Can cats get fat?

Do you know?

The Queue

Outside my house is an extremely long queue
Many odd people
Shiny, anew

A woman, a reporter, dressed all in blue
She glanced at me and shed a tear, they all shed
Whilst a hat of fine fruit perched high on her head

A man, a business worker, hating the view Looking over his shoulder, shouting onward
Before focusing his attention to doing the crossword

A teenager, a farmer, who was missing a shoe
Leapt out of his tractor
And started to hum a song from the x-factor

It was all pretty comply
Until something caught my eye

I came across a cat that squeak, moo and quack
I came across a mouse that was the same size as a yak

I came across a polar bear in purple pyjamas
I came across an avocado that was going bananas

I came across a pencil that could write its own essay
I came across a DJ that you didn't have to pay

And in my mind what was running through Was
Why were they even in the queue?

The School of Crazy

I go to this school called the fool
Our annoying head teacher is called Mrs Creature
My favourite teacher is Mr Banana who teaches drama
You're probably thinking well that's a funny name, well it gets worse
Miss Flee teaches PE
Mr Mystery teaches history
Mr Lee teaches you to catch a bee
Mrs Sherry teaches you how to grow a cherry
Miss Green teaches you to skin a bean
Mr Rose teaches you to pick ya nose
Mr Jones (we call him Mr Braces) show you how to tie ya laces Mr Greg teaches how to cook an egg
Mrs Pest teaches you how to look your best

I go this school called the fool
Our annoying prefect is called Jack who gets on your back
My friend is Ella who likes to be a teller
My other friend is Sam who eats lots of ham
There is a girl called Summer who wants to be a plumber
There is this boy called Joe who likes to row
Unfortunately, now I need to go

The School of Nuts and Nonsense

In the School of Nuts and Nonsense...

The teachers ride elephants to school to use To give people punishments and hang on the chandeliers and tell jokes while they're there

In the School of Nuts and Nonsense...

The children throw chocolate pies out the windows
On the teachers' heads and use pigeons to deliver Homework to the teachers.

In the School of Nuts and Nonsense...

You have lessons in the swimming pool to learn how to float on tin foil and in the playground to try and build the world's biggest pool

In the School of Nuts and Nonsense...

The dinner ladies steal the teachers' cars with everything inside and throw pies in each other's face to see how it tastes

In the School of Nuts and Nonsense...

To get your maths right you have to double the number in the question and in history you have to write what happened yesterday

In the School of Nuts and Nonsense...

In science you have to write everything in Spanish and in English you have to write everything backwards

By Henry G (King Arthur)

The School of Nuts and Nonsense

In the School of Nuts and Nonsense...

The teachers ride sheep down the corridors if they're late they have to teach the lesson themselves

In the School of Nuts and Nonsense...

The children slide on jelly to their classroom and wear a cupcake costume if they're in detention.

In the School of Nuts and Nonsense...

You have lessons in how to catch Santa and steal presents and watch the elves to see them move

In the School of Nuts and Nonsense...

The dinner ladies put cream on the students noses and give them ice cream with peas in

In the School of Nuts and Nonsense...

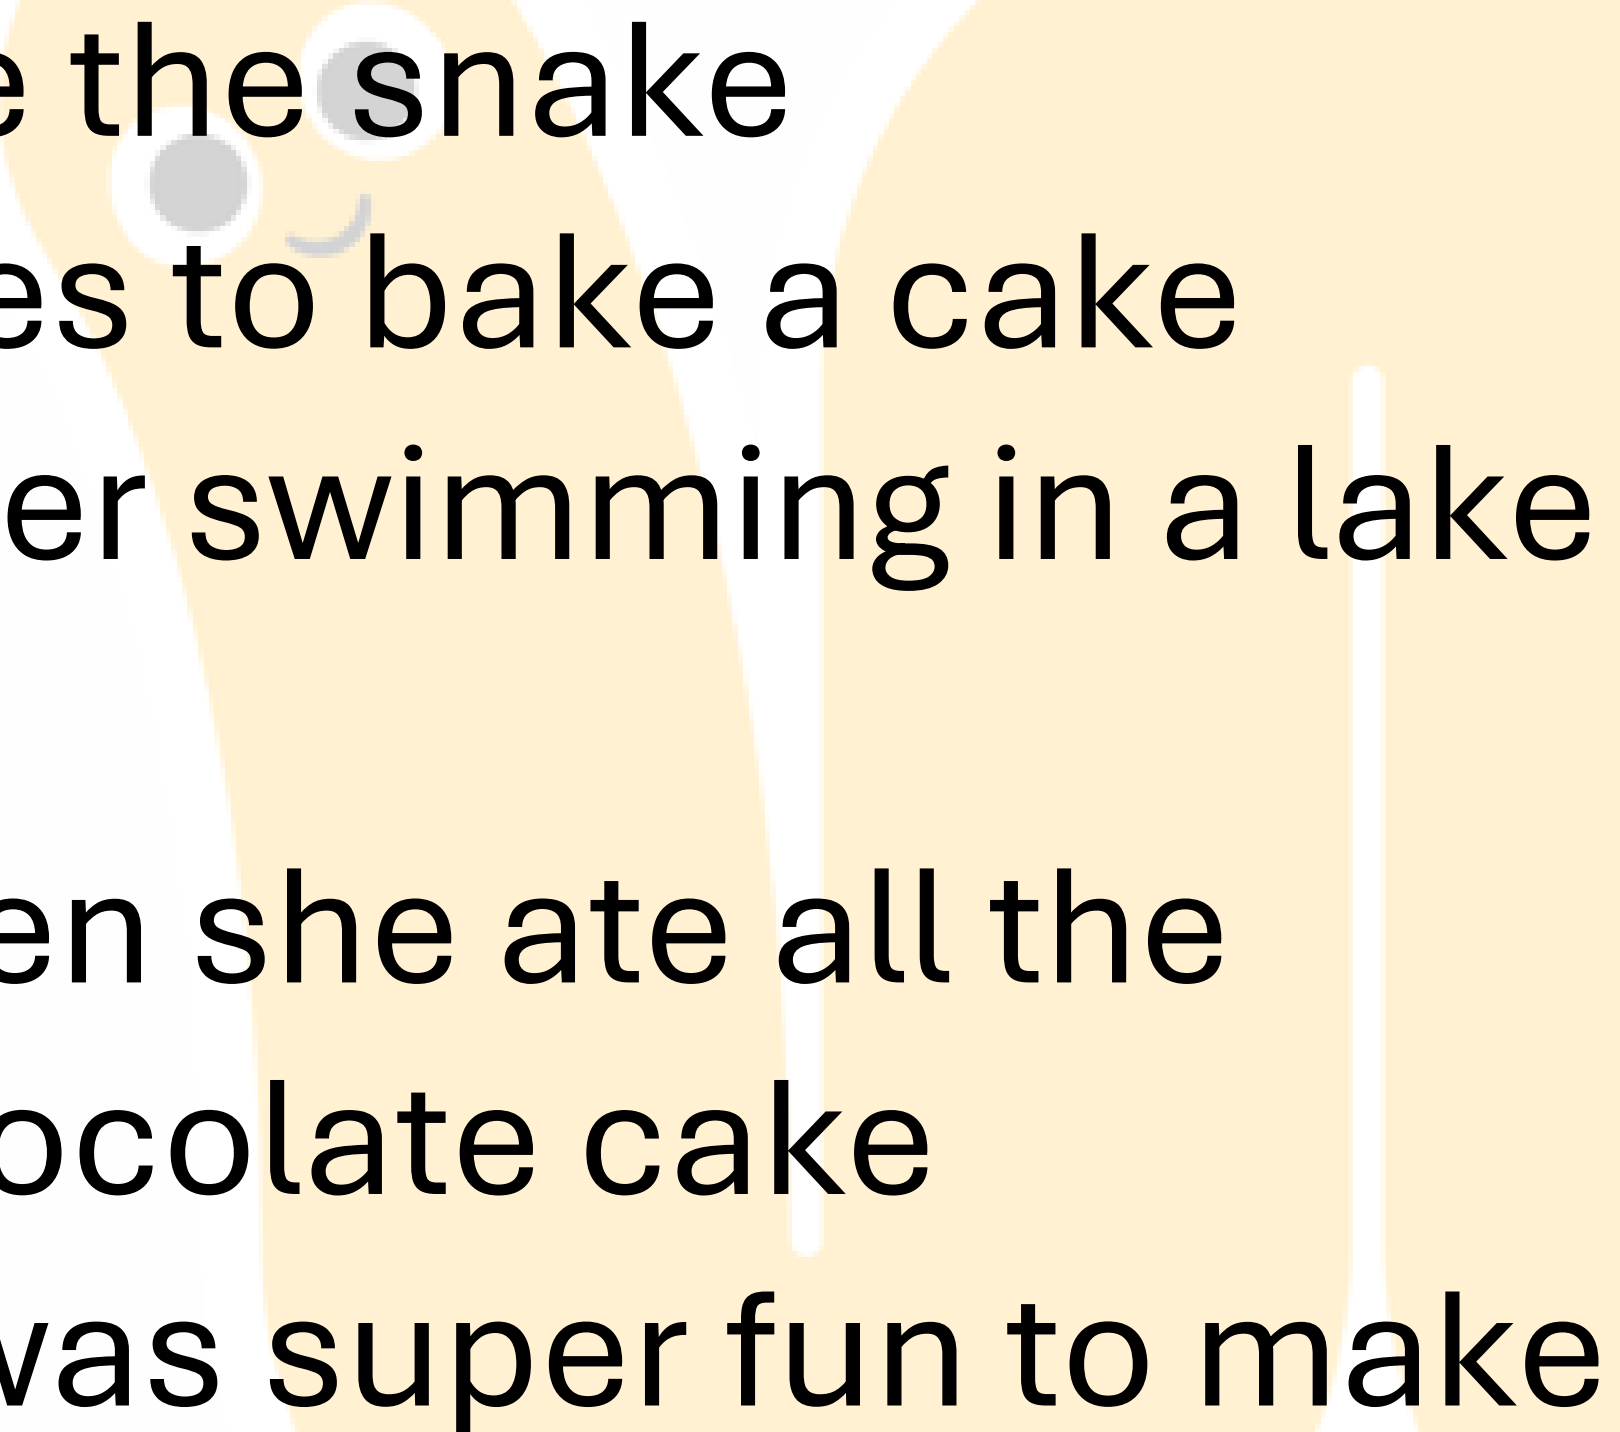

To PE teacher give us jawbreakers for tennis and swings from light to light like a monkey

In the School of Nuts and Nonsense...

Break time is when we ride elephants around and feed leaves to giraffes from the bushes

My Poem

Joe the snake likes to bake a cake
After swimming in a lake

Then she ate all the chocolate cake
It was super fun to make

Nonsense

Olive the dog loves to jog
She plays fetch with a frog
She is best friends with a log
She likes to sleep in a bog
Olive the dog hates cogs
and hogs

I Feel As Silly As...

A horse spinning in circles

A spider that wears pyjamas

A cheetah that said blah

A flamingo that thinks it is a whale

By Keira N (Merlin)

I Feel As Silly As...

A whale that can walk on land

A monster that wears swimming shorts

An owl that says oink

A lemur that think it is a snake
